

Volume 5, Issue 1

July/August 2019

Thirsty for the Gospel in a Dry Land

Learn how the Samburu are building a church that reflects their culture.

A Unique Legacy

Dan and Trula Cronk served as pioneer missionaries to India for 24 years (1948-1972) and saw many people come to know Christ. Though this remarkable couple went to their eternal reward years ago, their unique legacy continues—not only in the church in India, but through their influence on missionaries who remain on the field today.

Create your own unique missions legacy through an endowment with FWB Foundation to benefit IM.

 FREE WILL BAPTIST FOUNDATION
877-336-7575 | www.fwbgifts.org

Through Victoria's Lens

"I didn't become a nurse because it's my greatest passion—it's not. I became a nurse because I love God and I love people."

See how God is using Victoria's nursing skills among the Samburu.

Get an inside scoop in an interview with missionary Eddy Simmons.

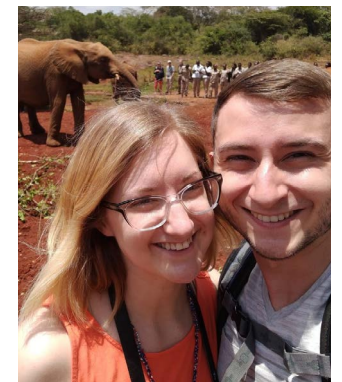

See A Photoshoot with Eddy Simmons

The Tongue of the Samburu

Imagine not having God's Word in your native language! It is hard to disciple new followers of Jesus without a Bible.

Read about the efforts to translate the Bible into the Samburu language.

"Twelve years later, it was surreal to be back in Kenya with my parents, listening to hyenas cackle just beyond the acacia-branch fence."

Snapshot: Kenya

There's nothing quite like living in the bush of Africa, where camels occasionally stroll past church. Get a glimpse of everyday life in Sesia!

Vol. 5 Issue 1
July/Aug. 2019

Funded by
FWB Foundation

Editor-in-chief:
Clint Morgan

Associate editor:
Emily Faison

Managing editor:
Deborah St. Lawrence

Design:
Shelby Culwell

